

COTTON CANDY SCARF

An Annie original pattern.

Close up of stitch.

Materials: I used one skein of Knit Picks new yarn called The Mighty Stitch in Cotton Candy. It is a worsted weight 20% superwash wool and 80% acrylic. It comes in 208 yards and 100 gram skeins. Machine wash and tumble dry. It is the softest wool/acrylic blend I have ever found. I promise you will love this yarn so much!

I used a version of the Brioche stitch. I have never done this stitch before, although I have been aware of it for years. I have to say I will be using it again because it is really easy and a fun stitch and I love the deep ribby look of this scarf.

Needles: Size 10.

Gauge: Doesn't really matter in this project.

Size: 4 ½" by 57".

Cast on 30 sts loosely.

Row 1: (this is a preparation row and only done once). *yo, sl 1, k1, repeat from *.

Row 2: (This is the only row you need to remember.)

*yo, sl 1, k 2tog, repeat from *.

Repeat row 2 until you have a couple of yards left.

Last row: sl 1, k 2tog. (You do not work the yo on this last row.)

Then bind off in pattern, very loosely.

Weave in ends. I didn't block this because I loved the deep rib. I love the feel of this yarn and I am going to love wearing this.
